

Emergency talks held to calm global markets markets turmoil DESORDEM

 The European Central Bank has held emergency talks on whether to buy Italian debt to contain spreading financial market turmoil, sources say.

 The BBC's Business Editor Robert Peston says the ECB is split on the move.

PREOCUPAÇÕES CRESCENTES Growing worries over debt in the eurozone and the US caused sharp falls on world stock markets last week.

20	1227	1228	11972	北京城乡	960	-0.7	140
32	971	972	38583	网通科技	1410	-0.41	8
15	1073	1074	39952	内蒙华电	819	-0.21	8
17	682	683	55669	哈投股份	941	-0.22	94
33	983	984	34012	百大集团	746	-0.21	7
21	902	903	12766	墨湖科技	977	-0.17	9
32	1295	1298	54907	通化东宝	879	-0.08	8
22	949	950	10705		361	0.17	3
14	826	827	206844		05	0.77	26
08	857	858	6401		549	-0.12	5
02	353	354	25824		882	-0.16	8
39	1454	1455	38		649	-0.18	6
26	1079	1080	6		1409	-0.36	14
41	1986	1988	542		587	-0.09	5

World leaders fear more turmoil when markets reopen on Monday

ENTRETANTO France and Germany have meanwhile said they welcome steps taken by Spain and Italy to boost competitiveness and cut their budget deficit.

ORGANIZADO ENFATIZAM "In particular, they stress the importance that parliamentary approval will be obtained swiftly by the end of September in their two countries," said the statement from French President Nicolas Sarkozy and German Chancellor Angela Merkel. FRONTAMENTO

COMPROMISSO The two leaders also reiterated their commitment to introducing measures to protect the euro which were agreed at a summit in July.